Climate Justice Art Morning!

We're excited to launch our Creative for Climate Justice art project, inspired by the national Get Creative for Climate Justice initiative where pupils use art to explore climate change as an issue of fairness and sustainability and share their hopes for a just future.

🎨 Art Morning – Tuesday 27th January, 9:00–11:00am: We warmly invite parents to join us to work with your child on their climate justice artwork. Stay for a tea break hosted by the Learning Council (please bring some loose change to support refreshments).

🖼️ Climate Justice Art Exhibition & Assembly – Tuesday 10th February, 2:20pm: Come and see the children's finished pieces and hear about what they've been learning. It will be a wonderful chance to celebrate their creativity and their thoughtful ideas about climate justice!

Careers Week – Volunteers Needed!

We're excited to invite parents and carers to be part of our Careers Week, taking place in the week beginning 2nd March. We're keen to showcase the huge variety of jobs and career pathways available, helping our children see the many possibilities open to them. This has been a real highlight of our school year in the past and was even celebrated in our Ofsted and SIAMS reports. If you're able to support us by sharing your job, skills or experiences, we'd love to hear from you—please complete the short form using the link. Thank you for helping us inspire our pupils! ## NHS Guide – Winter Illnesses

The NHS have created a parent guide to support them with deciding when children should attend school and when it is best that they stay at home, especially as we are in flu season. You can find out more by clicking here: <https://www.nhs.uk/live-well/is-my-child-too-ill-for-school/>
